

JONI FRANCIS OGLESBY, PH.D., SHRM-SCP, SPHR

Dr. Joni Francis Oglesby serves as the Chief Diversity Officer & Title IX Coordinator at the Florida Institute of Technology. She also serves on numerous university committees, is the United Way Employer Campaign Manager, and teaches business-related courses through the University's Nathan M. Bisk College of Business.

Over the last 25 years, Joni has held diverse positions within higher education including director of employee relations, executive director for Brevard Community College's Moore Multicultural Center, and chief human resources officer. Prior to her career in higher education, she worked in retail, banking, and crude oil refining & marketing administration.

Dr. Oglesby has served the community as:

- Chair of the board of directors for Serene Harbor, a domestic violence shelter; and
- Chair of the board of Bridges

She currently serves the community as:

- a board member of the Brevard Neighborhood Development Coalition (BNDC);
- a member of the Evans Center Board; and
- a member of the Brevard County Chapter of the Links, Incorporated.

Dr. Oglesby has been the featured guest speaker at numerous venues around Brevard County and is the recipient of numerous awards.

She earned a Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration from Capella University, a master's degree in Management, and a master's degree in Human Resources Development both from Webster University. She is a certified Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) from the Human Resources Certification Institute, a Senior Certified Professional (SHRM-SCP) and a certified Diversity Trainer both from the Society for Human Resource Management.