OPERATING IN THE SUNSHINE

Florida Sunshine Law requires that state and local boards and their committees hold meetings that are open to the public, reasonable notice must be given and minutes taken. Special Meetings and Emergency Meetings of the Boards or committees are posted at least 48 hours prior to the meeting (when feasible) ensuring provisions are taken to allow the public access to information regarding the meeting. Special Meetings and Emergency Meetings will be afforded the most appropriate and effective notice under the circumstances. This includes any and all venues in which two or more Board members are gathered to conduct business on behalf of Family Partnerships of Central Florida Family of Agencies or where discussions are likely to be held. Committees of the Board or subcommittees, who will provide a recommendation to the FPoCF Family of Agencies Governance Board, are also subject to the Sunshine Law.
