POLICY:

The Brevard Family Partnership Board is responsible for ensuring that the rights and entitlements of all consumers receiving services at Brevard Family Partnership are approached with the utmost sensitivity and maintained with the highest level of confidentiality. Therefore, Brevard Family Partnership will refrain from conducting human subject research without advanced BFP Board approval.

If at any time the Brevard Family Partnership Board of Directors approves an evaluation of service recipients, all research will comply with the standards imposed by the Department of Children and Families Human Subject Research policy 215-8 and State law and Federal regulations found in 45 CFR, 46.4.09 and 21 CFR 50.56.

Further, any statistical analysis, reports, presentations, or summaries involving client data will be compiled and presented in a manner that masks the identity and protects the privacy of consumers.

Approved by the Brevard Family Partnership Board of Directors on March 24, 2022.
